Return of the King

Please read my article "Most Implicating Quotes from 'Silent Weapons for Quiet Wars'" before reading this article.

The cabal are draining (parasitism, vacuum, black hole) the masses through two avenues: business and government. Corrupt business and corrupt government are working together, with the cabal behind everything.

Cabal infiltration in business: fiat inflation cost-of-living (trading over heads, BlackRock, salaries not increasing as fast as cost of living)

Cabal infiltration in government: taxes, fiat inflation ("Silent Weapons for Quiet Wars", Federal Reserve)

Fiat inflation = vacuum = "leaches its substance" = paper inductance:

"The final key to economic control had to wait until there was sufficient data and high-speed computing equipment to keep close watch on the economic oscillations created by price shocking and excess paper energy credits - paper inductance/inflation."

"Apparent Capital as 'Paper' Inductor

In this structure, credit, presented as a pure element called 'currency,' has the appearance of capital, but is in effect negative capital. Hence, it has the appearance of service, but is in fact, indebtedness or debt. It is therefore an economic inductance instead of an economic capacitance, and if balanced in no other way, will be balanced by the negation of population (war, genocide). The total goods and services represent real capital called the gross national product, and currency may be printed up to this level and still represent economic capacitance; but currency printed beyond this level is subtractive, represents the introduction of economic inductance, and constitutes notes of indebtedness"

"Thus, a nation becomes divided into two very distinct parts, a docile sub-nation [great silent majority] and a political sub-nation. The political sub-nation remains attached to the docile sub-nation, tolerates it, and leaches its substance until it grows strong enough to detach itself and then devour its parent."

Businesses are ultimately being overtaken by corporations (does anyone listen to music? https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Universal_Music_Group), and in the end the money is going to Vanguard, BlackRock, and cabal banksters. The majority of taxes are funneled directly to the cabal through their major infiltration of the US government.

I am very opposed to Communism due to what I have seen happen to the Soviet Union, North Korea, and what is happening to China right now (Taiwan is important). I have seen in person a clear example comparing what used to be West and East Berlin, with East Berlin still recovering. If I had to pick a political party, I would be a Libertarian. I would be Republican if I had to choose between Democrat or Republican.

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Libertarianism>

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Live_Free_or_Die

These two articles are solid explanations of the current state of American politics:

<https://channelings.substack.com/p/tunia-americas-political-war-is-a?utm=>

At the same time however, I understand that the cabal plays Capitalism and Communism as a game, and it is ultimately not about either of them (the cabal plays Republican and Democrat like a game as well, and it is also not about either of them). It is about having transparency and morality in government and business, and for leaders to be public servants, rather than rulers. It is about progressing humanity, and not taking from humanity.

I consider this society (America, 2025) to be really abnormal, because I see the cabal behind most leadership. It is like the equivalent of having toddlers run the household. It is like being in hell:

In the future, society will be much more enjoyable, efficient, and everyone will be living in natural abundance under God, similar to the Golden Age described in Unveiled Mysteries. The financial system will be completely transformed so that everything is fair and transparent, and there will be no babylonian money magic and parasitism. There will be no satanism, satanic ritual abuse, pedophilia, adrenochrome, or child sacrifice. We will eventually transcend the need for money, as shown in Star Trek:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8rh3xPatEto>

No one will be able to benefit at the expense of others, but rather humanity will benefit through cooperation. Human society will work harmoniously and synergistically with Prime Creator and nature. People will live much longer. There will be free energy, advanced technology, and humans will develop their psychic ability. Earth will be accepted as a member in the Galactic Confederation and will join the Sovereign Integral Network.

Corrupt souls on this planet now will not be participating in the future of this planet. The worst cabal (no remorse, not even interested in trying to change) will be sentenced and put to death for severe crimes against humanity (slavery, genocide) through galactic/agarthan military tribunal. After that some of them will need to have their souls recycled by angels in the spiritual Galactic Central Sun. They have been trying to go backwards in evolution by flipping the pentagram and worshipping "the beast", so here is their reward. Their soul identity will be erased, and their soul spark will start his/her soul evolutionary cycle over again as a rock (mineral kingdom—>plant kingdom—>animal kingdom—>Human/Hue-Man/God-Manifest):

<https://2012portal.blogspot.com/2018/01/operation-mjolnir.html>

"Questioner: Let's take the point at which an individualized entity of second density is ready for transition to third. Is this second-density being what we would call animal?

"Ra: I am Ra. There are three types of second-density entities which become, shall we say, enspirited. The first is the animal. This is the most predominant. The second is the vegetable, most especially that which you call sound vibration complex 'tree.' These entities are capable of giving and receiving enough love to become individualized. The third category is mineral. Occasionally a certain location, place as you may call it, becomes energized to individuality through the love it receives and gives in relationship to a third-density entity which is in relationship to it. This is the least common transition."

They forfeited their chance at immortality in Love, Wisdom, and Usefulness with Prime Creator:

Less awful corrupt souls will be relocated and have to pay off all of their karma (karmic math) on prison planets, and then in the spiritual world when they pass over:

Prime Creator knows everyone's intention, and souls are not held accountable for "evil" done under genuine coercion (legitimately no choice). Souls are however held accountable for every second of "evil" that they have freely intended and perpetuated.

There will be no government as we know it today. The word "government" has such a bad energy behind it because of how corrupt our governments have been since the fall of Atlantis. Rather, we will have councils of spiritually and materially advanced elders similar to what is in the Galactic Confederation or even the Zion Council in the Matrix films:

<https://channelings.substack.com/p/ashtar-an-interview>

<https://matrix.fandom.com/wiki/Council>

Society will be less externalized (business, government, academia), and we will return to actually progressing humanity and enjoying life (art, philosophy, science). Poverty and sickness will be eliminated. Everyone will be in the flow and doing what they love:

Quotes from the Tao Te Ching concerning true leadership:

"Carrying body and soul and embracing the one, can you avoid separation? Can you let your body become as supple as a newborn child's? In the opening and shutting of heaven's gate, can you play the feminine part? Can you love your people and govern your domain without self-importance? Giving birth and nourishing; having, yet not possessing; working, yet not taking credit; leading without controlling or dominating. One who heeds this power brings the Tao to this very earth. This is the primal virtue."
—10th Verse

"With the greatest leader above them, people barely know one exists. Next comes one whom they love and praise. Next comes one whom they fear. Next comes one whom they despise and defy. When a leader trusts no one, no one trusts him. The great leader speaks little. He never speaks carelessly. He works without self-interest and leaves no trace. When all is finished, the people say, 'We did it ourselves.'"
—17th Verse

"If I have even just a little sense, I should walk in the Great Way, and my only fear would be straying. The Great Way is very smooth and straight, and yet the people prefer devious paths. That is why the court is corrupt, the fields lie in waste, the granaries are empty. Dressing magnificently, wearing a sharp sword, stuffing oneself with food and drink, amassing wealth to the extent of not knowing what to do with it, is being like a robber. I say this pomp at the expense of others is like the boasting of thieves after a looting. This is not the Tao."
—53rd Verse

"Thus when a new leader is chosen, do not offer to help him with your wealth or your expertise. Help him to meditate on the principle; offer instead to teach him about the Tao. Why did the ancients make so much of the principle? Is it not because it is the Source of all good, and the remedy for all evil? It is the most noble thing in the world."

—62nd Verse partial

"Why is the sea king of a hundred streams? Because it lies below them. Humility gives it its power. Therefore, those desiring a position above others must speak humbly. Those desiring to lead must follow. Thus it is that when a sage stands above the people, they do not feel the heaviness of his weight; and when he stands in front of the people, they do not feel hurt. The sage stays low so the world never tires of exalting him. He remains a servant so the world never tires of making him its king."

—66th Verse

"There is a doctrine, if you will, within the Templar tradition that is very much open to the idea of reincarnation. There are certain tests that we do, almost like with the picking of the Dalai Lama, certain things are presented and if you have a knowledge of those things on a level that most people don't it usually implies that you've had experience with that before in a previous incarnation. And you were prepared to take on the work again.

"the candidate would have an out of body experience. And by having that out of body experience they realized that they are not just their physical body, and that there was some other part of themselves that could survive after death. And that who we really are is something much bigger than just our physical form. And so you don't need to be afraid of death anymore at that point, right? You can actually create change in the world—who cares if they kill you, you're just going to come back, you know? I mean there is something preserved. And this was the first step towards enlightenment or gnosis—divine experiential knowledge that you can tap into."

How about the return of the queen (goddess)? (I do not list as many names here because women are generally less on the front lines, but in addition to this—almost always "behind every great man there is a great woman")

"Goddess Vortex is an Angelic Presence that goes through our bodies and anchors into the physical plane. You will be able to feel that Goddess Vortex in your body. Archons are allergic to Goddess energy. This is why the Catholic Church was suppressing women. The non-physical Archons are very allergic to this. Every time any woman or man channels that Goddess Vortex, thousands of reptilians are removed forever."

"The most effective way to control a society and delay its evolution is to control female sexual energy. This is the reason why cultures that gave maximum sexual freedom to women were the ones that saw most progress."

In our current society, many women are unconsciously supporting the psychopath, and many men are unconsciously wanting to be this psychopath (see my "A Little About Me" article):

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/American_Psycho_\(film\))

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/You_\(TV_series\))

"This is why you have some women saying they want a kind man, and then they reject kind men in favor of a jerk. It's a war between the more evolved parts of her and her raw, cavewoman era, biological-level attraction. And if a woman is just following her attraction, then the cavewoman often wins. Women saying they want kind men, and then rejecting kind men in favor of jerks, is a sort of unintentional gaslighting that women inflict on men. And obviously, choosing bad boys and jerks isn't good for women's long-term happiness either. No matter how much her biological attraction might appreciate that those guys can kill bandits and bring home food during a famine"

"Immediate, biological-level attraction isn't actually a requirement for long-term relationship happiness. In fact, the Ancient Greeks saw immediate, biological-level attraction as a type of temporary madness that just leads people astray. They would be horrified to learn that many modern women refuse to date anyone except for those people whom they had an immediate, biological-level attraction to. To Ancient Greeks, that would be like saying: 'I don't date men unless I'm being overwhelmed by temporary madness for them.'

"Of course, some women absolutely do use their brain or intuition and make genuinely good dating choices. It's certainly not true that all women operate based on biology-level attraction. However, most modern women do."

<https://channelings.substack.com/p/tourmalayne-biological-attraction>

"Biological organisms are focused on maximizing their reproductive chances. And having a lot of money and status improves one's chances of reproductive success. So basically, this CEO is just being blindly driven around by his biological organism's desire to maximize reproductive chances. He's not following his soul's calling. He's not following his passion. He's not trying to maximize his happiness. He's not trying to be loved. Instead he's just being blindly driven around by his biological organism's desire to maximize reproductive chances.

"Of course the CEO is not literally being mind controlled. He still has free will. Rather, he's in a biological organism, and one part of that biological organism is what I call "the algorithm". This algorithm constantly nudges him into the direction of maximizing his reproductive prospects. How does the algorithm do that? Well, it gives him a brief moment of pleasure when he makes a lot of money. And it causes suffering in him whenever he sees someone else having more money than him, because from a reproductive standpoint that person is a competitor who might be the one ending up with the best partner."

There are of course also basically just as many female psychopaths as there are male psychopaths—they are just less obvious:

"Though they share much with their male counterparts, they may be even better equipped to elude detection."

<https://www.psychologytoday.com/us/articles/201906/why-female-psychopaths-are-different-breed>

"Researchers provide novel insights into female psychopathy, challenging the conventional 6:1 male-to-female psychopath ratio with new evidence suggesting a closer 1.2:1 ratio.

"The research indicates that societal gender biases have obscured the true nature and prevalence of female psychopaths, who often employ manipulation and seduction rather than violence to achieve their goals."

<https://neurosciencenews.com/female-psychopathy-psychology-25669/>

It will never be "men are evil and women are good" or "women are evil and men are good". The Grand Experiment in physicality is balanced, and men and women are equally accountable for perpetuating "evil".

We need to transcend this and start supporting the goddess and the hero. If you were wondering, the hero and goddess archetypes have better genetics than male and female psychopaths (see my "Secret Space Programs" article—you know Thor defeats giants easily, right?):
